Restrictions on the use of the Report

This Report is intended to be used by the recipient only in the part of the Project Review. The information contained in it is not subject to full and / or partial quoting or mentioning, other uses in any other sources without our prior written consent.

This Report is prepared on the basis of the most relevant and available information on the date of its release. We do not commit to changes in the Report in connection with events identified after November 6, 2018.

We draw your attention that the results of our research may not contain all the information relevant to you about the Project and are based only on the limited scope of work performed in accordance with the terms of reference approved in the contract.

The work we have done in this project is not an audit by its nature. The report you are presented with is based on studies of open source studies, conclusions made by the Forensic Token Lab company, information and documents provided to us (from the customer), as well as on analytical procedures carried out for the data provided. We did not verify the accuracy of the data, information and explanations provided to us in open sources and from customers, unless a separate request was sent to us, and we gave our consent to perform such work.

We are not liable for defects in the results of services if such defects were caused by incomplete provision or the provision of inaccurate information.

Materials and information used in the framework of the examination

Our findings are based on information obtained from documents provided on the basis of a list of requested information and on the basis of additional requests.

During the analytical examination, the following sources were used information:

- Web sites
- Web archives
- Social media
- Public databases
- Information and analytical resources

SUMMARY

As a result of the analysis, the following key issues were identified for the project, which can be added to the statement of claim in an arbitration or criminal dispute (depending on the jurisdiction of the claimant).
